

Broadcast Engineer

Location(s): Norfolk, VA

Type : Full-Time, Salaried

Responsibilities/Job Duties:

Coordinate activities of the broadcast engineering department; Monitor broadcasts to ensure that programs conform to station or network policies and regulations; Act as liaison between engineering and studio operations departments; Test station equipment to ensure proper operation and maintenance; Ensure efficient operation and maintenance of the television broadcast equipment; Oversee technical control of commercial television broadcast equipment at local station.

Requirements:

The minimum requirements for the Position Offered are a Bachelor's Degree (or foreign equivalent) in Electrical Engineering, Electronics Engineering, or closely related field and five (5) years experience as a Broadcast Engineer or closely related position in the commercial television broadcast industry. Must have skills inherent to the performance of the job duties, including skills working with commercial digital/analog television broadcast equipment and technologies, high power RF transmission technologies, satellite (Ku) transmission technologies, spectrum analyzers & power meters. Must be able to work on evenings and weekends as necessary for the performance of the job duties.

To apply mail your resume to WTVZ, Inc., Attn: Jeffrey McCallister, 900 Granby St., Norfolk, VA 23510.

WTVZ, Inc. is proud to be an Equal Opportunity Employer and Drug Free Workplace!